The Gift of Life

"I am 32 years old and started drinking at 10 years old. I've been arrested for public intoxication more times than I can count, and for DUI five times. Once I even struck a person with a car I had stolen while in a blackout. Alcohol is the one thing in my life that has held me captive, and I am so beyond ready to admit I am powerless and I need help. I have halfheartedly attempted to get sober numerous times. I never actually committed myself to my recovery. Last year, my friend, fiancée, and her 19-year-old daughter all died. I want to make something of myself. I am the lone survivor of the little family we had created. I have been given the gift of life and want to spend it sober. I appreciate the literature you have sent me.”

Nut Free Zone

The town drunk walks into a hospital.

Man at front desk: Hello Sir, what can I help you with?

Town drunk: I’m here to detox. I’m allergic to alcohol.

Man at front desk: I’m sorry sir, but we can’t admit you here. The staff here also have allergies and this is a nut free zone.
